LT Chris Phan, assigned to Naval Special Warfare Task Group at an undisclosed location somewhere in Iraq, made it to see CNO and MCPON at Marine base

Lt. Liam Connel was selected by the city leaders of Rota, Spain to serve as this year's "El Cartero Real," a very important and traditional position for the local holiday celebration. He accepted cards and talked with children about what they wanted from the Three Kings. Connel served as a great ambassador for the United States Navy to the people of Rota.
